However, you may opt out of receiving any, or all, of these communications from us by following the unsubscribe link or instructions provided in any email we send.

Subscriptions

Some parts of the Service, if you are a business, are billed on a subscription basis ("Subscription(s)"). You will be billed in advance on a recurring and periodic basis ("Billing Cycle"). Billing cycles are set on a monthly basis.

At the end of each Billing Cycle, your Subscription will automatically renew under the exact same conditions unless you cancel your Subscription or Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup cancels your Subscription. You may cancel your Subscription renewal either through your online account management page or by contacting Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup customer support team.

A valid payment method, including credit card, is required to process the payment for your Subscription. You shall provide Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup with accurate and complete billing information including full name, address, state, zip code, telephone number, and a valid payment method information. By submitting such payment information, you automatically authorize Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup to charge all Subscription fees incurred through your account to any such payment instruments. Should automatic billing fail to occur for any reason, Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup will issue an electronic invoice indicating that you must proceed manually, within a certain deadline date, with the full payment corresponding to the billing period as indicated on the invoice.

Fee Changes

Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup, in its sole discretion and at any time, may modify the Subscription fees for the Subscriptions. Any Subscription fee change will become effective at the end of the then-current Billing Cycle.

Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup will provide you with reasonable prior notice of any change in Subscription fees to give you an opportunity to terminate your Subscription before such change becomes effective.

Your continued use of the Service after the Subscription fee change comes into effect constitutes your agreement to pay the modified Subscription fee amount.

Refunds

Code of Conduct

Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup has the right but not the obligation to monitor and edit all Content provided by users. Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup will not censor posts which another user considers merely offensive or in bad taste. However, Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup reserves the right to remove a post if another user reports a post for violation of these Terms, and Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup can confirm the reported post, taken in the context of the thread, violates this Code of Conduct. These violations are explicitly defined and only, as Bullying, Blackmail, Death Threats, Terrorist Activity, posts directly depicting Violence, or direct threat of Violence to another user. It is crucial to review the entire thread so that one post can be taken out of context. No thread or post is viewable by Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup unless a user reports a post.

Bullying is defined by Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup specifically, objectively, and only, as: "to persuade an unwilling person to do something by using force or direct threats to life, limb, or property."

Blackmail is defined by Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup specifically, and only, as: "the action of demanding payment or another benefit from someone, in return for not revealing compromising or damaging information about them."

Death Threats is defined by Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup specifically, and only, as: "a direct threat to kill another person or group of people."

Terrorist Activity is defined by Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup specifically, and only, as: "use of, or threat of, violence, especially against civilians, in the pursuit of political aims."

Violence is defined by Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup specifically, and only, as: "extreme aggression, such as physical assault, rape, or murder." Users shall practice safe standards as defined in the Online Safety Guidelines.

Online Safety Guidelines

Protect your privacy. You should reflect before posting any identifiable information about yourself, your family, or another user. You should review the privacy settings in the app and be sure their privacy settings are set appropriately. It is the policy of Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup to default all privacy settings to their most secure settings when a user signs up.

Be careful of information from unproven sources. It would be best if you always did your own research on any opinions or other information posted by any other user to include any official posts made by Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup. You should assess the validity of any information posted based on its origin, the reputation of the source, and how it is reported elsewhere. You should assess any research published based on methodology, relevance, how the research was funded, and its objectivity.

Remember the internet is a public space. Halo Social Meetup is a privacy-centric app in which users can only match based on mutual interests. Any posts which are deleted shall never be stored on the server or any backups. However, this does not keep another matched user from screenshotting your post and sharing it elsewhere, which has the potential to circulate quickly. Therefore, you should be aware of this fact before posting anything you would not want your parents or boss to see.

Consider what may be offensive before posting. Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup shall not remove any posts unless they explicitly and objectively violate this Code of Conduct. However, you are encouraged to consider your audience when making any posts.

Consider citing sources if sharing any content. Copying and sharing content directly from another website, book, or research article and posting as if it were your original idea may be considered illegal. You should be aware of copyright restrictions and should at a minimum, cite your source when posting any such content. Your content on Halo Social Meetup belongs to you.

Use precaution when meeting another user for the first time in the real world. Halo Social Meetup is all about getting users to meet each other in the real world to share and exchange ideas and increase real and lasting human connections. However, you should always let friends or family know where you are going when meeting with other users for the first time. Consider meeting others in public, and relatively busy location.

Pause and consider before uploading images from your mobile device. Phones are convenient and easy tools to upload photos to Halo Social Meetup. However, you should be sure you are OK with the fact any image uploaded could potentially be screenshotted by any other matched user and shared elsewhere.

Use caution when sharing your location. Halo Social Meetup allows you to share your location to match with other users. However, you should use caution when sharing images and posts which would give other matched users insight about where you are or are not.

Consider if data charges may apply. Depending on your mobile service, data usage rates could apply. You should be aware of this before browsing posts and images or uploading your content over data networks.

Use precaution when using public WiFi or other open data access points. Public WiFi and other open data access points can pose a security risk, as other people could see your device on these types of networks. Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup strongly recommends using an encrypted Virtual Private Network (VPN) when using any public WiFi or other public data access points for any reason.

Users should not lie about their age. Halo Social Meetup only allows users over eighteen (18) years of age to sign up. However, as Hallo LLC DBA Halo Social Meetup does not independently verify age to protect privacy, if any user under eighteen (18) signs up and confirms they are at least eighteen (18) years of age, such an action is in direct violation with these Terms. In such instances, the user shall be removed, and all user content deleted immediately.
